

David S. Jakes
Professional Presentations
Current as of November 11, 2006

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” Illinois School Library Media Association, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Presented “Making IT Stick” (Keynote Presentation) and “The Ten Keys to Effective Professional Development,” October 2006, TechForum Texas, Austin, Texas.

Presented “New Literacies: Essential or Enrichment” and “The Ten Keys to Effective Professional Development,” October 2006, TechForum New York, Palisades, New York.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” Region 16 Educational Service Center, June 2006, Amarillo Texas.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” (Keynote Presentation) at the Capstone Digital Storytelling Experience, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas.

Co-Presented “21st Century Strategies for Professional Development” and “Visual Literacy and 21st Century Skills” at TechForum Chicago, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, April 2006, Itasca, Illinois.

Presented “got Wikis” and “An Introduction to Flickr” at the Illinois Technology Conference, March 2006, St. Charles, Illinois.

Presented “The One Room Schoolhouse: Creating Community in the Digital Age” at the Michigan Association for Computer Users in Learning (MACUL), March 2006, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Presented “New Literacies: Essential or Enrichment” and “Cutting Edge Tools for School Leaders” at TechForum San Diego, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, February 2006, San Diego, California.

Presented “The Read Write Web” and “21st Century Assessment: Rethinking the Classroom Test” at the Midwest Educational Technology Conference, St. Louis, Missouri, January 2006.

Co-Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” at TechForum Chicago, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, April 2005, Itasca, Illinois.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: The Power of Digital Storytelling” at the Illinois Technology Conference, Spotlight Session, March 2005, St. Charles, Illinois.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” at the Illinois Technology Conference, Spotlight Session, March 2005, St. Charles, Illinois.

Presented “The One Room Schoolhouse: Creating Community in the Digital Age” at the Illinois Technology Conference, Spotlight Session, 2005, St. Charles, Illinois.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” and “The One Room Schoolhouse: Creating Community in the Digital Age” at the New York State Association for Computers and Technologies in Education (NYSCATE), Albany, New York, November 2005.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives: An Introduction to Digital Storytelling” at TechForum Texas, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, November 2005, Austin, Texas.

Presented “Digital Storytelling, Visual Literacy and 21st Century Skills” at TechForum New York, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, October 2005, Rockland County, New York.

Presented: “The Power and Potential of Essential Questions,” Carmi-White School District, Carmi, Illinois, January, 2005.

Presented “21st Century Learning: Information Literacy through Inquiry,” Carmi-White School District, Carmi, Illinois, January 2005.

Presented “Effective Staff Development: What’s Working” at TechForum, sponsored by Technology and Learning Magazine, April 2004, Itasca, Illinois.

Presented “Not Your Father’s PowerPoint” and “An Introduction to Digital Storytelling,” Illinois Technology Conference, March 2004, St. Charles, Illinois.

Presented “21st Century Assessment: Rethinking the Classroom Test,” at the 2004 Illinois Education & Technology Conference, November 2004, Springfield, Illinois.

Presented “Capturing Stories, Capturing Lives, An Introduction to Digital Storytelling,” at the 2004 Illinois Education & Technology Conference, November 2004, Springfield, Illinois.

Presented “Not Your Father’s PowerPoint” and “Developing Information Literacy Through Online Learning,” at the 2003 Illinois Education & Technology Conference, November 2003, Springfield, Illinois.

Presented: “Using Unique Web Resources in Biology Instruction: The Next Step,” and “Building Online Curriculum: New Models for Improving Biology Instruction,” at the 2003 National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, October, 2003, Portland, Oregon.

Presented "Using Unique Web Resources to Engage Students: The Next Step," at the Michigan Association for Computer Users in Learning (MACUL), March 14, 2003, Detroit, Michigan.

Presented "Prep Period Technology", "Using Unique Web Resources to Engage Students: The Next Step," and "Building Online Curriculum: New Models for Improving Online Instruction," February 27 and 28, 2003, Illinois Technology Conference, St. Charles, Illinois.

Moderated "New Approaches to Online Learning" at Technology and Learning Magazine's TechForum Conference, October 2002, New York City, New York.

Presented "Prep Period Technology", "Using Unique Web Resources to Engage Students: The Next Step," and "Building Online Curriculum: New Models for Improving Online Instruction," at the Illinois Education & Technology Conference, Springfield, Illinois.

Presented "Prep Period Technology," at Highland Park/Deerfield High School English Inservice, March 24, 2002, Highland Park, Illinois.

Presented "Technology: It's Not About ____, It's About ____, " at the European Consortium of Independent Schools International Technology Conference, March, 2002, Brussels, Belgium.

Presented "Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-based Learning," at the European Consortium of Independent Schools International Technology Conference, March, 2002, Brussels, Belgium.

Presented "The Digital Teacher: Some Assembly Required," at the European Consortium of Independent Schools International Technology Conference, March, 2002, Brussels, Belgium.

Presented "Inquiry-based Trivia Contest," at the European Consortium of Independent Schools International Technology Conference, March, 2002, Brussels, Belgium.

Presented "WebTools: Managing Your Digital World," at the National Association of Biology Teachers Convention, October, 2002, Montreal, Canada.

Presented "WebTools: Managing Your Digital World," at the Downers Grove North Saturday inservice, April 7, 2001, Downers Grove, Illinois.

Presented "Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-based Learning," and "WebTools: Managing Your Digital World," at the SchoolTech Expo Conference, 2001, New York, New York.

Presented “Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-based Learning,” and “WebTools: Managing Your Digital World,” at the Kentucky Teaching and Learning Conference, 2001, Louisville, Kentucky.

Presented “Integrating the World Wide Web into English Curriculum,” 2001, presentation to the Downers Grove South English Department, 2001, Downers Grove, Illinois.

Presented “Using Digital Imagery in Daily Instruction,” 2001, District 99 Staff Development Workshop, Downers Grove, Illinois

Presented “WebTools: Managing Your Digital World,” 2001, District 99 Inservice presentation, Downers Grove, Illinois.

Presented “WebTools: Managing Your Digital World,” 2001, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Orlando, Florida.

Presented “Integrating the World Wide Web Into Your Instruction,” 2001, District 99 Inservice presentation, Downers Grove, Illinois.

Presented “Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-based Learning,” 2000, SchoolTechExpo Technology Conference, Chicago, Illinois.

Presented “Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-based Learning,” 1999, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Presented “The New Urban Herbivore: Problem-Based Learning and the Canada Goose,” 1998, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Reno, Nevada.

Presented “Successful Strategies for Student Internet Research,” 1998, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Reno, Nevada.

Co-presented “The Virtual Classroom: Tackling Technology with a Single Computer,” 1998, Michigan Science Teachers Association Meeting, Detroit, Michigan.

Co-presented “Using the Internet to Promote Inquiry-Based Learning,” 1998, Michigan Science Leaders Association Meeting, Detroit, Michigan.

Co-presented “Photodocumentation: Using Visual Literacy Skills to Promote Environmental Education,” 1997, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Co-presented “Engaging Science Students in Effective and Meaningful World Wide Web Research,” 1997, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Co-presented "Electronic Information Access: Managing Students Through Acceptable Use Policies," 1996, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Co-presented "Using a Single Computer in a Science Classroom to Create Active Learning Environments," 1996, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Co-presented "The Value of Electronic Information: Strategies for Student Assessment of Information from the Internet," 1996, National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Presented "Using the Internet in Secondary Education" to the Principal's Parent Roundtable Advisory Committee, 1995, Waubonsie Valley High School.

Presented at the 1995 Northern Illinois University Multimedia Festival, DeKalb, Illinois. Presentation topic was "Bog Trailwalker," an interactive environmental educational software product which I designed and produced.

Co-presented at the 1995 National Association of Biology Teachers Meeting in Phoenix, Arizona. Presentation topic was: "Biology Instruction & the Internet: Curriculum Using the Electronic Highway."

Co-presented at the 1995 International Visual Literacy Association Meeting in Chicago, Illinois. Presentation topic was: "Photodocumentation: Using Visual Literacy Skills to Promote Environmental Education."